ENROLMENT

ADMISSION & WELCOME UNIT GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT OFFICE

- The Admissions & Welcome Unit is temporary located in via Venezia 13 from 23rd August to 29th October
- For the enrolment finalisation:
 - If you obtained your qualification in a non-EU country, you need to book an in-person appointment here (select the option "Welcome desk for degree seekers") and hand in your original documents;
 - If you obtained your qualification in a EU country AND/OR if you hold a Diploma Supplement in the standard format approved within the framework of Bologna Process, you are exempted from booking an appointment in person.

BACHELOR'S DEGREE APPLICANTS

1) Upper secondary school certificate (achieved after at least 12 years of schooling) translated (Italian/English) and legalised.

N.B: If in the country where you achieved your qualification, an entrance exam is set for the admission to University, you must provide a certificate showing you have passed that test.

2) One of the following documents:

a) Statement of Comparability (Attestato di Comparabilità), issued by CIMEA. Students can request such certification (upon payment) through a personal account on MyDiplome. Enrolled students at UniPD will be reimbursed through the second instalment of university tuition fees, unless they benefit from full tuition fee-waivers or scholarships of any kind.

b) Declaration of Value (Dichiarazione di Valore), issued by the Italian Embassy or Consulate in the country where you have obtained your diploma.

1.2.2 REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

MASTER'S DEGREE APPLICANTS (1)

1) Bachelor's diploma (or alternatively post-secondary qualification which allowed you the admission) translated in Italian or in English and legalised.

2) Transcript of Records released by the competent academic authority, stating passed exams. It must be translated (in Italian or in English) and legalised.

3) Proof of English language proficiency (if not provided yet)

MASTER'S DEGREE APPLICANTS (2)

4) One of the following documents:

a) Statement of Comparability (Attestato di Comparabilità), issued by CIMEA. Students can request such certification (upon payment) through a personal account on MyDiplome. Enrolled students at UniPD will be reimbursed through the second instalment of university tuition fees, unless they benefit from full tuition fee-waivers or scholarships of any kind.

b) Declaration of Value (Dichiarazione di Valore), issued by the Italian Embassy or Consulate of the country where you have obtained your diploma.

c) Diploma Supplement (only for qualifications obtained within the framework of Bologna Process) issued by the University where you have obtained your diploma along with the final degree.

1.2.4 REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

TRANSLATION AND LEGALISATION OF DOCUMENTS

Academic Qualifications and certificates must be submitted with an official translation according to the rules set by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation (MAECI).

Legalisation is required in order to guarantee the document authenticity and can be obtained at the Italian Embassy or Consulate of the country where the Diploma has been awarded.

If the country where the qualification has been awarded is a member of the Hague Convention (1961), an Apostille must be affixed by competent authorities, instead of legalization.

Should you have difficulties in obtaining Legalisation/Apostille, you can alternatively request the Statement of Verification (Attestato di Verifica) issued by CIMEA. Students can request such certification (upon payment of a €65 fee) through a personal account on MyDiplome.

HEALTHCARE

- Students coming from EU countries can benefit from medical assistance in Italy thanks to the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC, in Italian “TEAM”) issued by the competent health institution in your country of residence.
- The EHIC gives you access to the National Health Service for “urgently needed medical treatments” during temporary stay.
- You can voluntarily register in the National Health Service. The voluntary registration entitles you to benefit the Italian healthcare services like Italian citizens do; it is valid for one calendar year (from 1st January to 31st December); the payment is not divisible and you cannot apply retroactively.

<https://www.unipd.it/en/healthcare-EU>

Non-European students must hold a valid medical insurance in order to apply for their residence permit. The medical insurance can be obtained through :

- private insurance
- voluntary registration in the National Health Service
- EHIC- only for students residing in a EU country

For further information please read the Guide to Health services released by the Veneto Region, which is available online in multiple languages:

THREE INSTALMENTS PER YEAR

- The FIRST instalment is €188,00 for first-year students.
The payment is due when enrolling to any degree programme.
- The SECOND and the THIRD instalments are calculated according to your income, merit and individual situation.
The SECOND instalment must be paid by 15th February 2022.
The THIRD instalment must be paid by 16th May 2022.

How can you pay?

Through PagoPA, a method which guarantees safe and reliable electronic payments towards Italian Public Administration. This payment method is available via Uniweb (Contribuzione).

Info and Guidelines: www.unipd.it/en/key-documents

What is ISEE?

ISEE is an official certificate which indicates your financial standing in any given year on the basis of family status, earnings, property and expenses. You will need to provide information and documentation regarding you and your family's annual income and assets.

What is it used for?

It is required to access a wide range of economic benefits (tuition fees reductions, Regional Scholarship, ESU Accommodation etc.)

Where can I obtain the ISEE?

The ISEE is issued by the CAF (Fiscal Assistance Centre) CIA PADOVA VIA LONGHIN, 25 – 35129 PADOVA.

Please read carefully the ISEE GUIDE downloadable at www.unipd.it/en/isee

8.3 VENETO REGION SCHOLARSHIP

8.4 FLASH CARD

What is it?

The Flash Card proves your student status at the University of Padova and allows you to use certain services, such as access to university areas, library loans, electronic recognition before examinations etc.

How do I receive it?

After completing the enrolment procedure, it will be sent to your address.

International students who have not indicated an Italian address on Uniweb will receive an email confirming that their Flash Card is ready to be collected at the Student Office. This email will be sent usually about 4 weeks after your enrolment finalisation.

Flash Up Studio

The Flash Card can also be upgraded to Flash Up Studio at one of the branches of Intesa SanPaolo bank, so that you can make bank transfers/payments, receive credits (scholarships, reimbursements, mobility grants, tutoring grants, etc.).

EDUCATIONAL OFFER AND COURSE CONTENTS

In the Educational offer page you can find all the information about your course: just select your academic year > type of degree course (Bachelor's degree, Master's degree or Single-cycle degree) > School > your degree programme

Once you selected your degree programme, you will find all the available information about each Course Unit, such as the educational aims, the syllabuses and the lecturers' names (as well as their email address contact)

<https://en.didattica.unipd.it/>

CFU – ECTS

Italian universities use the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS).

1 ECTS = 1 CFU (“credito formativo universitario”) = 25 coursework and workload hours.

- 1 academic year = 60 CFU/ECTS
- Bachelor's degree programmes = at least 180 CFU/ECTS
- Single-cycle degree programmes = at least 300-360 CFU/ECTS
- Master's degree programmes = at least 120 CFU/ECTS

STUDY PLAN

Your Study Plan is the detailed overview of activities to be completed in order to achieve your degree.

You must fill out your Study Plan in Uniweb after the enrolment. Before doing so, it might be useful to consult with the Tutor of your Department/School.

Exams can be:

- mandatory - they will be automatically selected by the system.
- elective/surplus credits – elective exams must be chosen among the exams included in the curriculum of your degree programme; surplus credits are optional exams which allow you to acquire extra credits (in addition to the total amount of credits required to obtain your degree qualification).

9.4 TEACHING MODE and LESSON TIMETABLES

During the first semester, the University of Padua will deliver classes simultaneously in-presence and online. More information will soon be made available by each Department.

Students facing major limitations in travelling to Italy will have the opportunity to start the academic year online and then come to Padua as soon as this is possible.

NON-EU student residing outside Italy must apply for the Study VISA by 30th November 2021 nonetheless.

To verify the timetable of your classes please visit the student's Web Agenda. If the starting date and/or timetable of your Programme's courses is not available yet, the Department will publish it soon.

For more information please contact the School/Department Tutor.

LIBRARIES AND STUDY ROOMS

Thanks to 29 libraries, the University offers an extremely wide range of volumes, magazines, e-books etc. However, due to the Covid emergency, access to the libraries is limited and allowed only through online reservation using the Affluences App (a web version is also available).

<https://www.unipd.it/en/libraries>

www.unipd.it/en/multimedia-facilities

In addition to the resources normally available in open access, the University of Padova also provides contents and tools usually accessible only under subscription. Most of the resources can be consulted off-campus using the Auth-Proxy service or the University Single Sign On authentication.

LANGUAGE COURSES

The CLA (University Language Centre) promotes the learning of modern foreign languages and of Italian as a foreign language through courses and other activities. It is also a test centre for internationally recognised certifications such as IELTS, CILS, TOEFL etc.

<http://cla.unipd.it/en/>

Many online resources are also available:

- Language Advising

Linguistic assistance and guidance consisting in individual sessions via ZOOM with experts in language learning

- eTandem

A form of peer-to-peer learning at a distance through which students can deepen their linguistic and cultural knowledge by using several online tools

- Online courses

English, French, Italian and Portuguese courses made available online for remote learning

PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSISTANCE

Not happy with your study skills and grades?

Having difficulty managing your time and your university tasks?

Are you unsatisfied with your relationships or your university career?

Are you feeling too often anxious, embarrassed, afraid or ashamed?

Are you feeling confused or alone in this new context?

Studying and living abroad can be difficult sometimes, that is why the University of Padova decided to offer its students a psychological assistance service that provides free counselling sessions. The service aims to help students along their academic and non-academic path by defining their psychological needs and supporting them through the issues that they may face in their everyday life.

International students can refer to psychological.assistance.scup@unipd.it to ask for information or an appointment

SPORT

The Padova University Sports Centre (CUS) offers many opportunities to take part in sports, competitive and amateur alike, at the two structures located in Via Giordano Bruno and Via Jacopo Corrado.

In addition to services for payment, there are "no pay" activities for which the Centre makes its facilities available free of charge to users during set time slots, typically the track and field arena, 5-a-side football pitch, and tennis, volleyball, basketball and handball courts.

<https://www.unipd.it/en/sport>

BUDDY AND OTHER TUTORING SERVICES

The University of Padova offers also peer-to-peer assistance services whose online activities have been reinforced to meet remotely the needs of the students.

International students can be assisted by a Buddy, i.e. a Master's degree student who will welcome and support them during their stay

Tutors are students enrolled in single or second cycle degrees, doctoral degrees or specialisation degrees, who received special training so that they can effectively help other students manage all the aspects of their academic life

LIVING THE CITY

11.1 GETTING AROUND

The University promotes various initiatives in order to improve sustainable transport in urban areas.

City buses and tram are run by APS Mobilità: tickets can be bought at edicole (newsagents) and tabaccherie (tobacconists); bus passes are available at APS offices and online. A special transport for people with disabilities can be booked by phone: 840.00055

An on-call night time bus service, founded in collaboration between the University, the Municipality of Padova and Busitalia Veneto, is also available, upon request via the Night Bus App.

There are two Bike sharing options in Padova:

- Goodbike Padova
- Mobike (stationless)

Enjoy our 170km of cycling paths!

11.2 DISCOVERING PADOVA

- A city definable as truly student-friendly, Padova hosts over 58,000 students within a population of little more than 210,000 inhabitants: these are the numbers depicting one of the oldest university towns, where student and city life coexist in close proximity on a daily basis
- Prato della Valle, St. Anthony Basilica, Scrovegni Chapel are only the most renowned examples of all the Cultural landmarks you can visit in Padova!
- Many artistic and monumental masterpieces are part of the University cultural heritage, including Palazzo Bo, Palazzo Liviano, the Botanical Garden and La Specola.

- There are plenty of opportunity in town to listen to good music and take part in cultural activities, like visiting city museums and exhibitions or going to theatres, concert halls and cinemas: Music, theatre and cinema
- Please check here the University of Padova programme of Events.
